

Sr. Asset Management Consultant - Toronto

Job Summary

- Assist clients with the development and implementation of asset management practices and develop supporting business practices, tools, and presentations.
- Assist clients with the development and implementation of maintenance management practices in conjunction with EMA's WMS team for effective EAM implementations.
- Assist clients with the development of reliability programs based on the application of RCM and other similar processes.
- Must have strong interpersonal communication skills and the ability to influence without authority.
- Must have strong writing skills and a track record for delivering quality presentations, reports and workshop materials.
- Must be able to work in a team environment with other consultants with different expertise and strive to achieve a common goal while delighting the client.

Education Required

Minimum: Bachelor's Degree

Experience Required

- Minimum of 3 -5 years of professional consulting experience OR 3 - 5 years experience in supervision/coordination of technical staff.
- Solid understanding of Operations & Maintenance in the Water/Waste Water Industry.
- General understanding of other Utility Business Services.
- Specialized expertise in Utility work practices with special emphasis on Maintenance Management, Asset Management, Reliability Centered Maintenance Predictive Maintenance, Business process Re-engineering, Operations Management, Work Practices Implementation and Performance Management.

Knowledge, Skills & Abilities Required

- Excellent interpersonal and communications skills.
- Ability to follow direction and think independently when required.
- Desire to grow into a project manager role and obtain PMP certification a plus.
- Ability to travel 50 - 75% .

For more information please contact Summer Benoit at sbenoit@ema-inc.com or (651) 210-8988

EMA is an equal opportunity employer. We value and support diversity in our workforce.