

Canusa-CPS (a ShawCor company) supplies a wide variety of products and systems used for onshore and offshore pipeline corrosion and thermal protection, specifically at the weld area. Known for its advanced heat-shrinkable products technology for field weld joint protection, Canusa-CPS also manufactures and supplies liquid epoxy-based coatings for joint protection and rehabilitation plus adhesives for pipeline coatings. ShawCor Ltd. is a highly successful global energy services company, leading its competitors in all market segments and financially positioned to continue its growth and success well into the future.

Canusa-CPS is looking for a Maintenance Manager

Location: Toronto, ON

Key Responsibilities:

- Manage and maintain a maintenance system for all production equipment and plant facilities.
- Must be comfortable using PLC's and understanding electrical terminology.
- Supervise all trade personnel working in the plant.
- Submit requests for shop supplies, parts, etc.
- Assist Purchasing department when sourcing maintenance materials and supplies.
- Establish and maintain a cost effective PM system.
- Coach and develop staff members.
- Coordinate maintenance requirements with production staff
- Comfortable working in a fast paced environment.

Qualifications:

- Post Secondary education in Engineering, Mechanical or equivalent.
- Must have at least 15 years of related work experience.
- Must have an Engineering or Trades designation
- Excellent supervisor and time management skills.
- Good listener, strong leader, team player.
- Must be able to meet all deadlines and follow up on commitments.
- Experience in a lean manufacturing environment is an asset.
- Able to work under minimal supervision.

We thank all applicants for their interest; however we cannot accept telephone calls regarding this position. All recruiting activities are managed via our Recruitment Management System and you must apply via the link below or the posting on our career page at www.shawcor.com/careers to be considered for this opportunity.