The Regional District of Nanaimo (RDN) is situated within the traditional territory of several First Nations, including three that have reserves within the region: Snuneymuxw, Snaw-Naw-As and Qualicum. The RDN recognizes the rich cultural history of these First Nations and is committed to developing positive working relationships to the benefit of all residents of the region.

ORGANIZATIONAL PROFILE

The Regional District of Nanaimo (RDN) is one of 28 regional districts in the Province of British Columbia. Regional Districts across the Province strive to ensure all provincial residents have an effective form of local government, while also representing municipal residents on regional issues. The RDN provides regional governance and services to the municipalities of Nanaimo, Lantzville, Parksville, and Qualicum Beach, as well as seven unincorporated Electoral Areas. Established in 1967, of the 28 Regional Districts in the province, the RDN is British Columbia's fifth most populous Regional District and home to more than 155,000 people.

ABOUT THE ROLE

Reporting the General Manager, Strategic and Community Development, the Manager of Asset Management & Strategic Initiatives will be responsible for the development, implementation, and oversight of the Regional District's asset management program. The Manager will also lead and participate in corporate strategic planning initiatives and projects. Duties will include, but not be limited to, supervising, monitoring and directing consultants working on projects pertaining to strategic initiatives and asset management; providing advice relating to corporate strategic planning and services reviews; monitoring local government sector best practices; coordinating and implementing the planning, development and delivery of corporate organizational change; procurement and managing project contracts and related budgets; and other related duties as required.

QUALIFICATIONS

The successful candidate will have a master's degree and/or professional designation in engineering, public administration, planning or related field. The successful candidate will have a minimum five years of intergovernmental experience within a complex political environment across interdisciplinary offices. Candidate must have experience designing and implementing an asset management program with knowledge of project management, data analysis and interpretation. The role requires excellent interpersonal, communication skills and problem-solving abilities. An equivalent combination of training and experience will be considered.
