

Director, Material Management Ottawa Police Service

Location: Ottawa, ON.

The Ottawa Police Service is the City of Ottawa's community police service, committed to ensuring Ottawa remains one of the safest cities in North America by protecting the safety, security and quality of life of its citizens. Created in 1995, OPS employs a staff of over 2,100 police officers and civilians and responds to over 300,000 calls per year.

Policing across Canada continues to evolve into an extremely sophisticated, resource intensive and complex profession that takes place in a highly dynamic environment. The strategic utilization of space and resources is essential to an effective and evolving service. It is within this context that OPS is seeking its next Director, Material Management.

Reporting to the Chief Financial Officer, the Director provides leadership to ensure that the services and programs of Facilities Management and Project Design & Space Management, Fleet and Technical Services, and Quartermaster Services are meeting the current and future needs of the organization and our diverse community. You will ensure the efficient and economic operational management of the Material Management Branch while leading and supporting change in support of the identification of opportunities for continuous improvement and best practice.

As an ideal candidate, you possess a university degree in a related field (material management, business or public administration, facilities, etc.) combined with 8+ years of progressively senior experience in asset, inventory, facilities, and/or fleet management within a dynamic, mid-to-large, unionized environment. OPS will benefit from your strategic program, policy and process development and implementation experience as well as your demonstrable skill in project management. A proven team leader with at least five years' experience in managing dynamic teams of subject matter experts, you are a skilled communicator capable of fostering positive relationships based on trust and collaboration. You are a transformational leader who is politically astute and extremely client centric by nature. An excellent problem solver who is creative and solutions oriented, you are comfortable with ambiguity and working within dynamic environments where the need to work with dedication and agility is the norm. Although not a mandatory requirement, bilingualism in English and French is an asset.

To apply for this unique resource and material management leadership opportunity, please visit: boyden.thriveapp.ly/job/1470. For more information, please email dpi@boyden.com and state the position title in the subject line of your email.

We thank all applicants for their interest, however only those under consideration for the role will be contacted.